

A Cheaper Cellular Plan

Various cellular service providers offer plans to suit those who need to make umpteen numbers of calls in a day or those who need to have long conversations. But in case of some citizens, these are not actually required and all one needs is a basic plan. To better suit the needs of such people and some senior citizens, top rated cellular services have now started provided such services at discounted rates. One among these is the AT & T Nation 200 Plan which has attained great fame and popularity among many users from the time it was initially started in the year 2008. The AT & T Nation Plan offers a talk time of 200 minutes whereby the user can talk to anyone in any place and 500 minutes are provided for talking in the evenings/weekends. This plan comes at a low charge of $30 for a month which gives many older people a better choice as they have no necessity for making lengthier calls. All they need is to keep in touch with their family or some friends. Additionally, they can also make calls during any period of crisis if they are away from their home. Though the AT&T 200 plan is aimed at elderly people, it also comes with a variety of other attractive and useful features such as free in- network calls. The customer is provided with a personal ID and can have a call waiting option. He can also receive voice mails and is able to forward calls or have a three-way calling facility. However, there is a contract that the person has to enter into. This contract could be for one or two years and if one happens to discontinue the AT&T Nation 200 plan due to some contingency then he will be forced to pay a termination fee for breaking the contract. Many people have benefitted from the AT&T Nation 200 plan which has gained popularity especially among the older generation who are 65 plus. They are not particular about the other special features of cell services that other plans provide. Hence they can settle for something that suits their budget and fulfills their specific necessities in a better way. Learn more about at&t cell phones for seniors. Stop by Bill Davies's site where you can find out all about the best cell phone for seniors at&t.